

May 7 - Regarding the lifting of operation restrictions of the Tottori Prefectural Library

Following the outbreak of Covid19 in the prefecture, the library remained opened while offering limited services. As there have been no new cases in the last two weeks, the restrictions have been lifted and the library has been operating as usual since May 7th. However, in order to prevent the future spread of the virus, we would like to ask library patrons to follow the guidelines below:

Please refrain from using the library if you feel even slightly sick.
